

CITY WILL ENTERTAIN VISITORS ON FRIDAY

Council Voted $1500 Last Night For an "At Home" to the Strangers Within Our Gates

At the city council meeting last night a motion was passed to the effect that the city of Edmonton would entertain the members of the legislature and their friends on Friday evening, and $1500 was voted for the purpose. Furthermore it was unanimously resolved that, so far as it was in the power of the city council to arrange, that the members should have every opportunity to see the good side of Edmonton, as a commercial, financial, geographical, agricultural, social and political centre.

The entertainment provided for by the council on Friday evening will be in the nature of a conversation, to be held in the rink, and to be given under the auspices of the council and the board of trade. Invitations will be issued to all the members, and a batch of them placed in the hands of the members to issue to their friends. For the home people tickets will be on sale at one dollar each, at Archibald's, Carpenter's, Graydon's and MacKenzie's stores, and the number will be limited only by the size of the auditorium.

The entertainment to be furnished to the visitors within our gates is not to be in the nature of a ball nor yet of a banquet. Music will be furnished and lunch will be served, but the intention of the management is that it shall be an evening "at home" by the city at which the citizens and their guests may have an opportunity to meet and become acquainted with each other. The visitors will not be bored with speeches or any of the formalities that usually go with such functions; they will just be given an opportunity to move around and be sociable. Of course the mayor will say a few words of welcome to our visitors, but he is not expected to make a speech. In fact, this idea is that for once all formalities will be declared off and the people of Alberta from all parts of our glorious province will meet as neighbors and friends.

Down at the rink a special effort is being made to get the auditorium in shape for the opening conversation. Twenty-five men cleared the rink of ice last night and today the heating apparatus is being put into commission again to take the chill off. The decorations will commence to go on this afternoon and by the time the lieutenant-governor is notified that his parliament is awaiting his arrival he will find the Thistle rink a very comfortable place to arrive at.

The entertainment is to be in the hands of a committee composed of the city council, and about an equal number of members of the board of trade who will also constitute a permanent committee for the entertainment of members and visitors during the session, and furthermore, every good loyal citizen of Edmonton is requested to constitute himself or herself a committee of one to see that no visitor is allowed to visit the city without being thoroughly impressed with Edmonton's advantages.

There were present at the council meeting last night Acting-Mayor Beland, Aldermen, Smith, Mays, Latta and Picard.

The first communication to be brought to the notice of the council was a letter from Mayor Edmonson of Calgary regretting that Edmonton had not received its invitation to the convention of municipalities. As the matter has already been explained by the fact that the invitation had been addressed to Mayor May and owing to the fact that the Mayor was out of the city it had not reached the council Mayor Edmonson's letter was laid on the table.

GOVERNMENT WITHHOLDS APPROVAL OF GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC CROSSING

Company's Route Map Shows Crossing at Clover Bar, but Government Withholds Approval Pending the Completion of Preliminary Surveys Through Strathcona.

Ottawa, March 14.—Collingwood Schreiber, Government chief engineer on the western division of the National Transcontinental Railway, reports on the progress of the work from Winnipeg to the Pacific. He says for 58 miles between Winnipeg and Portage, the route map has been submitted and approved and location surveys are in progress. From Portage to Touchwood Hills, 275 miles, the line has been located, but only 258 miles of the profile have been submitted and this portion of the work is under contract to McDonald, McMillan & Co., who have commenced operations, graded fifty miles and built the necessary culverts. The contractors are organizing for vigorous work on the opening of spring. From Touchwood Hills to Edmonton, 490 miles, the company have filed a route map, but inasmuch as the line crosses the Saskatchewan twelve miles east of Edmonton at Clover Bar, the Government have withheld their approval of the first 45 miles east of Edmonton, it being desirable that the line should pass through Strathcona, crossing the Saskatchewan at that point and so into Edmonton, if as favorable a line can be obtained as by Clover Bar. Results of the re-survey of this portion of the route will not be available until the end of March. In the meantime location surveys have been in progress within 45 miles of Edmonton. From Edmonton to the western end of the Pacific section, preliminary surveys have been made, but no route has been submitted for approval, as, until it is determined which pass through the Rocky Mountains is to be adopted, it is impossible to show the route for this portion of the road. Schreiber says exploration of the mountain passes have been made, but sufficient information has not yet been obtained to enable a decision to be reached on so important a question.

OPENING OF LEGISLATURE

Fisher Will be Speaker, Stuart Will Move the Address and Puffer
Will Second

Preliminary arrangements for the opening of the first legislature of Alberta, which takes place on Thursday afternoon, the 15th, have been finally made and the program outlined.

As heretofore announced, the opening of the session will take place in the Thistle Rink, and the ceremonies there are to be followed by a reception which will be held in the assembly hall of the Mackay avenue school.

A gang of men were started today to clear the rink of ice and get everything in readiness.

Fourteen hundred invitations have been issued by members to their friends, and when these are seated the hall is open to the extent of its seating capacity to any who choose to come in. The Thistle Rink is calculated to seat 3,000 people comfortably and there is little doubt that every chair in the house will be occupied as visitors are already pouring in from all parts of the province.

The program for the opening of a legislature consists, to a large extent, of a formula which has been handed down from the early days of parliamentary government, and in the case of Alberta, as in all cases throughout the British Empire for the past thousand six hundred years, this formula will be followed.

According to the program the legislature will meet in the rink at 3 o'clock sharp. They will be seated in the main body of the auditorium, the guests of the house being seated around about. Immediately the legislature is seated the Lieutenant-Governor dressed in a Windsor uniform comes to the hall, escorted by a body-guard of Mounted Police, and coming up the aisle to where the members are gathered, his aide de camp asks who is speaker for the parliament which has been summoned to assembly. Being told that no speaker has been appointed, the governor tells them that he cannot proceed with the business of the legislature until a speaker has been appointed, and he withdraws, ostensibly in a huff. The legislature then proceeds to elect a speaker, and having done so, the governor is notified and returns to the hall, and proceeds to read the speech from the Throne, which, of course, is the important event of the day as it foreshadows the legislation that will be undertaken by the parliament during the session.

When the speech has been read, it is moved and seconded that it be taken under consideration, and thereupon some member makes a pro-forma motion of some kind, entirely irrelevant to the speech, the idea being that the parliamentarians are thereby declaring their independent right to proceed with whatever legislation they chose, irrespective of what the King may have outlined or desired. In this case the motion will probably be that certain members be constituted a committee to advise the standing committees. A motion to adjourn until some future date, probably Monday, when the house will re-assemble to consider the speech from the throne is then in order.

Following, there will be a reception, given by the premier and the members of the cabinet to their friends, which will take place from 4 to 6 o'clock, in the assembly hall of the Mackay avenue school. Luncheon will be served to the visitors.

The names of the speaker, and mover and seconder of the address, of course, are not supposed to be announced previous to the opening of the house. However, there is a general accepted report that T. W. Fisher, of Banff will be speaker of the house. The address will be moved by C. S. Stuart of Glenora and seconded by W. F. Puffer of Lacombe.

CLIVE HOLIDAY ON THURSDAY

By proclamation of the Mayor Thursday the opening day, is to be a civic half-holiday. All places of business will be asked to close at 1 o'clock sharp and forget all about business for the remainder of the afternoon.

MR. HAGGARD NOT PLEASED

Ottawa, March 13.—The House only sat for a few hours today.

Hon. M. R. Emmerson, presenting his annual statement, showed the revenue approaching the expenditure. He said the Government had no idea of selling the Intercolonial. It will soon be a paying proposition. Mr. Haggard said this was the old, old story.

RETAIL MERCHANTS MEET

The question of price cutting was the subject of considerable discussion at the fortnightly meeting of the Retail Merchants Association, held last night. There was a good attendance of members, and they decided that the best way of handling the matter of cutting prices, was for the various branches of business to form sub-associations, and to appoint committees to regulate prices.

ONTARIO PEOPLE COMING WEST

One Thousand Left Toronto Yesterday with 100 Cars of Effects

Toronto, March 13.—Fully one thousand men, women and children left Ontario this afternoon for Manitoba and the west. They have with them about one hundred car loads of effects.

COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS

Ottawa, March 14.—Mr. Fitzpatrick has given notice of a select committee composed of Messrs. Aylesworth, Greenway, Stockton and Ingram to enquire into the operation of acts relating to the elections of members of the House and into the practice and procedure in connection with election petitions and to consider what changes are desirable therein, with power to send for persons, papers and records, to examine witnesses under oath and to report from time to time. This committee will deal with such troubles as have taken place in Manitoba over the last.

KRYK REMANDED

Winnipeg, Mar. 13.—Callous and apparently indifferent to the curious glances of the throng of idle spectators who crowded the court room and craned their necks to get a glimpse of the man who it is believed did to death his fellow countryman, Fred Kryk, held for the murder of Tomka Kozesinski Saturday at 706 Magnus street, was arraigned to day and remanded for a week.

WILL GREAT NORTHERN COMPLETE CANADIAN NORTHERN

Solicitors for the American Road Inform City Council They Will Apply for a Charter to Build From Vancouver to Edmonton

Will Hill build the mountain section of the Canadian Northern? A letter which was read at the city council meeting last night goes a long way toward strengthening this view.

Messrs. Martin, Weart, McQuarrie & Cassidy, acting as solicitors for the Vancouver, Westminster & Yukon, wrote stating that they proposed to go to the Dominion government at the present meeting of parliament for an amendment to their charter to give them powers to build from Vancouver to Edmonton, by way of the Yellowhead Pass.

The V. W. & Y. is the Canadian name for the branch of the Great Northern by which Hill is invading the province of British Columbia, and at the present moment his railroaders are giving the C.P.R. people the time of their lives to keep up in the building race that is going on in the Boundary country. That Hill is going further, of course, no one doubts for a moment, and when the Coast Kootenay connection is completed, British Columbians expect to see him extend north. The V. W. & Y. charter, as originally outlined, called for a road from Vancouver to the northern boundary of the Province of B. C., but the amendment sought changes the route so as to extend to the eastern boundary, at Yellowhead, and asks the Dominion for power to build down the Alberta slope and into the city of Edmonton over a right of way that may be approved by the governor-general in council. It is well known that Hill surveying parties and exploration parties have been working in the mountains for the past two years and news was brought to the city not more than ten days ago that a party which is unquestionably Great Northern men is working on the B. C. side of the range in the Yellowhead right now.

From the financial end of it, there is every reason to believe that the Great Northern and the C.N.R. will be found working together. On the occasion of his recent visit to the city of Edmonton, William MacKenzie told the Bulletin that "they were not worrying much about the mountain section."

Since that time that statement has assumed a new significance and offers a very different interpretation. Only a week or so ago the Vancouver papers published a story replete in circumstantial details to the effect that the C.N.R. outfits were to be brought over the mountains in the early spring and put to work on the coast end of the V. W. & Y. Simultaneously there comes from New York a rumor that the C.N.R. is looking there for money and a hint that the Hill crowd will take advantage of the circumstance to get the connection he wants across the northern prairie.

It will be remembered that in December last, when the C.N.R. people floated their last batch of bonds on the London market—owing it is alleged to skillful "knocking" by the C.P.R.—30 per cent. of them came back on the underwriters' hands. This, to all intents and purposes closes the London market to the

NEWSY ITEMS FROM STRATHCONA

The Bulletin's Daily Budget From the Sister Town

Strathcona, Mar. 12.—There was a good attendance at the Epworth League meeting in the Methodist church last night. Mr. W. Brock acted as chairman. Voluntary literary contributions were given by the following: Rev. Mr. Johnston, and Messrs. Ketyla and Weeks, while the gentle sex were well represented by Miss Sproule, Miss Wainright and Mrs. Richards. An enjoyable evening was spent by those in attendance.

The board of trade held their regular meeting here last night in the town hall. There was a good representative attendance with Dr. MacIntyre in the chair. The wisdom of extending Saskatchewan avenue west to McKernan's grade, came up for discussion. It was admitted that if this avenue was so extended, and properly graded, it would make one of the most picturesque pleasure drives in Northern Alberta. No definite action was taken in the matter.

A meeting of the Strathcona Liberals will be held in the Odd Fellows Hall, Douglass Block, on Thursday evening next at 8 p.m., for the purpose of selecting ten delegates to attend the Central Liberal convention to choose a candidate to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons, caused by the calling of the Hon. P. Talbot to the Senate. Dr. MacIntyre and N. D. Mills, and J. Galbraith, Strathcona and A. S. Rosenroll, M.P.P., Wetaskiwin, are mentioned as available candidates.

We understand that the town council have purchased two generators from the Canadian General Electric Co., Toronto, for $9,000 and one boiler from the Robb Manufacturing Co., Amherst, N.S. for $3,800.

Superintendent Whyte and Niblock of the C.P.R. and Solicitor Alken of Winnipeg, came in this morning over the C. & E.

Messrs. Crawford and Bishop, liverymen, have returned from their trip down the C.N.R. for a car load of horses. They return in about ten days to bring the animals up to the stable.

Mr. Dietz of Dietz & Main, went south this afternoon on business.

A telegram has been received from Mr. Callaghan, Campbellford, stating that he will leave there for Strathcona on the 19th.

Timber is laid down on the street immediately west of the Bank of Commerce, Whyte avenue. It is the first consignment of Mayor Sheppard's proposed building, which is to be erected between the Bank of Commerce and the Dominion hotel.

There was a meeting last evening in the Baptist church here, under the auspices of the B.Y.P.U. Mr. E. Lyne of the Galtier staff gave a very instructive paper on the evening's subjects "The Perfect Man". This led to a discussion in which Rev. Grant and Messrs. Nightingale and Currie took part. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. Colin McNulty, read a thoughtful paper on the subject "The Perfect Man" at the Christian Endeavor meeting here last night in the Presbyterian church. The Misses Blain, and Messrs. T. S. Young, Dunn, and Inglis also took part in the discussion which followed. There was a good attendance and much interest in the work was manifested in the meeting.

The Rev. Mr. D. Fleming came home last night on the late train from Calgary.

Mr. D. Bush came in on the train, from a business trip to Leduc.

FAIRS AND HORSE RACES (Toronto News)

Even under the present law there are fairies in Ontario that pay one-third more money for races and other special attractions than in prize for agricultural products. This is wrong. It is a bad thing for the country, for it minimizes the value of agriculture. It is a bad thing for the fair directors, for they are conducting a business under false pretences. It is a bad thing for the farmer who attends the fair with his family, for it turns their eyes away from essentials to trivialities.

More than this, it has been proven again and again that "a horse race fair" has many other objectionable features. In the particular case just cited there were thirteen games of chance in operation on the grounds last year. "Liquor" was being sold, and a number of evil side-shows were in full blast. Moreover bookmakers were selling pools on the races.

It may be said that people will not come to a fair unless it has horse races. We are disposed to doubt this, but if it is true the natural deduction is that the people want a race meet and not a fair. Give them that then, but do not ask the Government to pay anything toward their entertainment. So far as we are aware the Ontario Jockey Club gets no Government grant. Other racing bodies should get no more consideration.

HOCKEY

The hockey season, so far as Edmonton is concerned, has come to a close, for, although the air is still crisp and the mercury hovering around the zero mark, the utilizing of the Thistle rink for the opening of the first legislature of Alberta has necessitated the tearing up of as pretty a sheet of hockey ice as has been made this season. The last game was rung off Monday night, and the rink management are doing some tall hustling to have the auditorium in shipshape condition for the imposing ceremonies of Thursday.

Edmonton has been handed out a pretty fair line of hockey during the cold weather, and can boast of four teams which have done their share towards building up a reputation for the capital, the senior Thistles, the intermediates, the Alberta college team and the High School bunch.

The seniors, if one were to size up the pile of silverware they have landed during the season, have had a very successful run. But they have not come out with flying colors in the manner that was anticipated at the beginning. During the season they have played a total of 19 games, including their trip abroad. Of these games, the first two were the exhibitions played on Christmas and New Years. Of the 19, they have won 10 and lost 9. Strathcona and the Thistles won each a game of the exhibitions. Four of the games were for the Peterson cup, held by Strathcona. Three of these were won by Edmonton, and one by the other fellows. The Thistles played two games with the Kootenay men, and lost one. On their trip to Winnipeg, the Thistles lost four games and won two. They played two more exhibitions with Strathcona and lost one.

The cup presented by the Calgary Brewing and Malting Co., which has been the bone of contention between the old rivals in the last series of the season, was won by the Thistles on Monday night, with two games to their credit and one against Strathcona. The Thistles have therefore played a total of 11 games with Strathcona, winning 7. The Calgary cup was not played for last year and the year before was won by Edmonton.

Although Strathcona have done nothing this year in the silverware, they have a team to be proud of, which at times proved itself far superior to the victorious Thistles.

The intermediates have simply done up everything they tackled. They played seven games and won hands down every lick. They also captured two sets of medals, which inducement has not been offered to them in previous years.

Two of the games they played with Calgary, one with Red Deer, two with the college, and two with Strathcona intermediates.

The college team and the high school aggregation have also had a lively time amongst themselves, and have proved to be fast stickhandlers.

LETHBRIDGE BLAZE

(Lethbridge Herald)

Lethbridge was visited by a very serious fire last night at six o'clock, and today all that is left of the machine shop of the A. B. & I. Co. is a pile of smouldering ruins. The entire building and machinery were completely ruined, and the total loss is placed at $21,000. Master Mechanic McNabb informed the Herald this morning that the machine shop would be in operation in a few days in the south end of the round-house, preparations already being underway to put the place in condition for this purpose.

The loss on machinery is covered by insurance, and the loss on the building which was a frame structure with a sheet-iron roof, will be very little, as it was well insured also. The insurance adjusters from Winnipeg are expected here tomorrow.

The fire was discovered about five minutes after six, just as the men were leaving work. A strong north wind was blowing at the time, and while there is no certainty as to how the fire was caused, it is believed a spark was to blame.

An alarm was immediately sent in, the company's hose being attached to the pumps in the meantime and several streams of water put on the building, which was a mass of flames in a minute. The town brigade on its arrival had to attach their hose to the hydrant in front of the iron works.

With additional water playing on the fire, the building could not be saved but luckily the flames did not spread to any of the adjoining buildings. One of the water tanks became ignited, but the damage to this was not heavy.

Locomotive No. 20, recently repaired and put in excellent condition, was in the machine shop and could not be taken out. It was damaged to the extent of $1,200; at least it will take fully that amount to put it in shape again. The new private car of the company was standing close to the shops, and it was quickly removed to a safe location.

About twenty men were employed in the shops, but they will all be at work again in a day or so.

TAKE NOTICE that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Alberta at its first session for an Act to incorporate the "Edmonton and Athabasca Development Company," with power to construct a pipe line between the City of Edmonton and points along the Athabasca River to Pierre au Calumet for collecting crude and other oils and the delivery of the same to vessels and railways; to develop, construct and utilize water power; to produce, transmit and supply electricity or other motive power, and to act as general manufacturers, merchants, wharfingers, and warehousemen; to acquire and operate mines, minerals and mining rights; to construct and operate pulp mills; to refine and reduce mines and mineral ores; to construct and operate electric railways; to acquire ships, wharves, and water rights and timber berths; to construct and operate telephone and telegraph lines, and to do all things that may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of carrying out any of the powers granted to the company.

THE LAND QUESTION

A feature of the rapid development of the Canadian west is the increased number and the larger ambitions of "settlement companies." These companies are of course formed for the legitimate purpose of making money, which purpose they seek to accomplish by securing large areas from corporations which have been favored with Crown grants, and re-selling this land to actual settlers at an advance in price. While by this means the west secures the additional productive powers of an increase in the farming population, this advantage is not secured without a corresponding disadvantage in the conditions under which these new-comers begin their operations—a disadvantage of quite sufficient importance to the individuals concerned and hence to the country of which they are the citizens to warrant an examination of the matter.

The abounding prosperity with which the west has been favored has been produced not by the wand of an economic magician, but by the less poetic plow of the tiller of the soil. The wealth of the west lies in its fertile lands and only as these lands have been brought under cultivation has the west been progressive or its people prosperous. The fur-trader, the miner and the adventurer explored and traversed the prairies for a century, but contributed little either to the betterment of themselves or to the advancement of the country. With the coming of the farmer the condition of the country has changed from the range of the buffalo to a land of cultivated fields and countless herds; from an unknown and unproductive region to a land of well tilled farms and progressive cities; from the hunting ground of the savage to the home of civilization in all that the term implies or may in the coming time be made to signify. In a very literal sense the wilderness has been made to "rejoice and blossom as the rose."

The rapidity with which this transition has taken place has varied directly with the efforts put forth to secure settlers and the facility with which these settlers have been able to secure good farming land and it has been found not more necessary for the welfare of the country to secure settlers than to make as easy as possible the conditions under which they could secure land and conduct their operations. The great attraction which western Canada has held and holds today for the prospective immigrant is the free homestead and in proportion as this inducement has been published in the countries whence such settlers come, has been the immigration and the consequent development of the soil and the production of wealth.

Though in a country where free homesteads are available the price of land held for sale must necessarily be low, there is a difference, and to the beginner with small capital a great difference, between 160 acres of free land and 160 acres for which he must pay even a minimum price. The lowest price at which saleable land can be obtained today reasonably near a railway in western Canada is probably 27 per acre. Compared to the price at which similarly productive land can be obtained in eastern Canada and the United States, this figure is unquestionably low, yet in comparison to the free homestead it represents the difference between beginning farming on land free from debt and beginning on a farm with a mortgage of $1120, and this difference may mean to the individual all the difference between success or failure. In a country where the farmer on purchased land must compete with the farmer on free land, the former enters the competition under the handicap of the price he has paid or must pay for the land. This principle is readily seen in the case where the purchasing farmer has borrowed the money with which to purchase. While his neighbor is able to utilize for the betterment of himself and family and the improvement of his farm, all the proceeds of that farm, the purchaser must annually devote a portion of this production to pay tribute to the money-lender. But whether the money is borrowed or not the principle remains good and the purchasing farmer reaches the condition of the free homesteader only when he has recovered the capital invested in the land.

The supposition that a sale of land or an advance in the price of land represents an increase in the aggregate wealth of a community is a mistaken notion, and the most damaging instance of this false doctrine is the quite current belief that eastern capital invested in western farm lands increases the wealth of the west. The price paid for a farm represents an invested capital which must some time in some manner or other be extracted from the production of that farm, and constitutes a tax of the productivity of that farm the discharge of which withdraws that portion of its production from circulation and places it in the pockets of the seller of the land. If, therefore, as frequently occurs, the seller is an eastern capitalist or corporation the production of the farm which passes into the commercial life of the west is lessened by the amount which must be exported to pay for the land. And whether the seller be local or foreign this portion of the wealth produced from the soil passes not into the channels of commerce, but into the coffers of the speculator. It follows that the more frequently land changes hands before coming into the possession of the farmer, or the larger the margin of profit demanded by the speculator on his venture, the greater the percentage of production annually withheld from the commerce of the country and devoted to the enrichment of the seller or seller. From first to last the speculator adds nothing to the wealth of the country, and his operations in farm lands result simply in the imposition of taxes on the future cultivators of those lands.

How far-reaching are the results of this principle is seldom realized, probably because the amounts involved in individual cases are comparatively small. Yet considered in its operation over a large area the consequences will be found of very considerable import to the country at large. Assuming that a township of land is purchased by farmers at the price mentioned above, the total purchase price amounts to $161,280. Calculated at the rate charged by the C. P. R. the interest paid on this sum would be in the neighborhood of $12,000, a total purchase price of $173,280 representing an annual tax of $17,280 for ten years, which is required from the farmers of that township before they can devote their surplus production to the purchase of machinery and stock and the betterment of their conditions of life. This amount does not pass from the farmers to the local merchants and artisans, but is rendered as tribute to those who have added nothing to the value of the land and nothing to the wealth of the country, and in many cases to the eastern speculator whose investment in western lands was hailed as a beneficent but will be remembered as something different.

When on the other hand, land passes freely from the Crown to the farmer the entire production of that land is devoted to the betterment of the circumstances of the pioneer and in such application is turned into the general trade of the community and made to contribute its share to the general prosperity of the country. And when such land is purchased from the homesteader, while the price paid becomes a tax on the future tiller of the land, the operation has the compensating advantage that such price goes, not into the pockets of the non-producer, but as a reward to the pioneer.

To the individual the difference between the systems is the difference between a system of the land, the operation has the compensating advantage that such price goes, not into the pockets of the non-producer, but as a reward to the pioneer. To the individual the difference between the systems is the difference between a system of the land, the operation has the compensating advantage that such price goes, not into the pockets of the non-producer, but as a reward to the pioneer.

Address Was Adopted Yesterday

Ottawa, March 13.—The debate on the address was adopted by the House yesterday although the sitting lasted until one in the morning. Knowles, of West Assiniboia, made a splendid speech in which he protested against the people of the east importing racial discussions in the last elections.

Mr. Borden said that two officers of the Interior Department had been found guilty of fraud in the Prince Albert election and demanded to know why they were not dismissed. Mr. Oliver in reply said that one of them was not an officer of the Government and was not dismissed, the other was an interim official of the Government and was dismissed.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier as usual made an eloquent speech and predicted a short session as all the legislation which the Government proposed was before the House.

Mr. Lake generally attacked the Government officials in the Saskatchewan elections and said that much fraud had been committed.

Mr. Oliver spoke early this morning, and said that if Mr. Lake could make good his insinuations in any case the official would be dismissed. He asked for proof, but none was forthcoming. He repeated the offer and said that if proof was not forthcoming, then the member should apologize. To say that the Government should disfranchise its officials was absurd. One of the parties in Prince Albert had not been prosecuted because he was in similar work for the Tories and therefore they did not dare prosecute him.

PLANS FOR CITY SEWERS

City Engineer Lays Alternative Plans
Before the City Council

At the city council meeting last night the city engineer submitted three alternatives on the sewer proposition, allowing for three ways of building the sewers that are wanted to connect the west end and east end with the Rat Creek main.

The first of the propositions call for a ten-foot brick main to be built eastward from a septic tank which it is proposed shall be placed in Rat Creek, just west of where the C.N.R. crosses the creek, parallel with Rat Creek to First Street. From that point it is proposed to build a sewer up First street to Mackenzie avenue, and thence along Mackenzie to Twelfth street, making the connections required in the west end by connections to the south. The estimated cost of this proposition is $20,000, and the average depth at which the sewer will have to be laid is 27 feet.

Proposition No. 2 calls for the construction of the main trunk sewer parallel to Rat Creek as far as First, the same as in No. 1. From there to Churchill it is proposed to build a large sewer, but not a permanent main on First street, and thence along Churchill to Ninth, where it will turn south and cross the C.N.R. track and yards. This proposition calls for a line from First to Sixteenth street on Mackenzie, and includes all the west end connections, but does not provide for any sewer on First from Churchill to Mackenzie, which would cost about $2,000 extra. The estimated cost of proposition No. 2 is $225,000, and the estimated depth is 21.5 feet.

Proposition No. 3 calls for the same main along Rat Creek as far as First but also that the main shall be carried across the unsurveyed Hudson's Bay reserve to a point due north on Ninth street, from there it is proposed to put in a heavy sewer south to where Ninth is surveyed, and along Ninth across the tracks, to Mackenzie, where the same connections as proposed in Nos. 1 and 2 will be provided for, except that there is no sewer from Rat Creek to Mackenzie on First.

The cost of this proposition is estimated at $231,000, and the average depth figured as 21 feet.

An additional expenditure of $31,000 will be provided for all the water and sewer connections asked for in the east end, namely sewers on Kinslino from Elizabeth to Giesbach and on Clara from Kinslino to Boundary, and water on Namayo from Clark to Short, with the sewer extensions asked for. The three propositions were laid on the table until a full meeting of the council, when they will be gone into thoroughly.

CITY WILL ENTERTAIN VISITORS.

pending the return of the mayor. H. J. Dawson wrote on behalf of the Edmonton Cricket club asking the city to set aside six acres for a cricket ground. The club offered to put the grounds in order and asked to be allowed to hold it only so long as it was used for a cricket ground, no admission to be charged. The matter was laid on the table pending the time when the city shall formally acquire the park. D. W. MacDonald asked that the fire bylaw be waived to permit him to move a metal covered building on the lane at the rear of the lot on the north east corner of Jasper and Second, 40 feet nearer to Jasper, so that he might build a two storey solid brick building on the ground. The request was granted.

Lieutenant-governor Bulyea telephoned that he had had no official notification yet as to the date when Prince Arthur of Connaught would reach the city but he had learned from other sources that he would in all probability arrive in the city at noon on the 6th and leave here early on the 7th.

The Canadian White Co. of Montreal and the United States Steel Product Export Co. of New York, both wrote offering services in connection with the building of the street railway by the city. The letters were referred back to the commissioners to enter into communication with the companies and learn what they could from them.

J. W. Ford wrote resigning his position as poundkeeper. The resignation was accepted and the commissioners instructed to advertise for another poundkeeper.

A petition was presented from E. J. Taylor and A. York, asking the city to brush and clear a number of streets in the west end on Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, and on Athabasca avenue, on which they were almost the sole property owners, and that the expense be charged up as a local improvement. Commissioner Kinaird pointed out that the practice had been heretofore been to charge the expense for brushing streets to the general fund instead of to local improvement, and a motion was put and passed ordering that the streets be cleared at the city's expense as soon as the frost was out of the ground sufficient to permit the work being carried on economically.

A petition was presented from a number of merchants asking that in securing the charter amendments that an amendment be asked for permitting the city to pass an early closing bylaw. The city solicitor explained that owing to changes in the general act the charter now permitted the city to pass the bylaws they want, and the city commissioner was instructed to inform the petitioners of the circumstance and advise them that if they want an early closing bylaw that it was up to them to present a petition to that effect.

EDMONTON MARKETS

Wheat.—So far as Edmonton is concerned, the wheat market is closed. The Dowling Milling people and the Alberta Milling Co. have ceased to buy wheat altogether, and there is nothing doing at the elevators.

The milling companies state that they are full up. Edmonton farmers have always received a price away above the market, and probably one of the principal reasons why Edmonton buyers are out of the market is that the Chicago prices in May wheat have been dropping fast, so fast, that they have dropped twelve cents within the past three months.

Oats.—Deliveries in oats are still steady however, and the prices are varying but little. Brackman-Ker are buying at 26c for milling oats, and the price for feed is about 23 to 25. The deliveries on the city market are good.

McDougall & Second are paying 25c for the best print butter and are offering 15 cents for fresh eggs.

The Whitelaw Co. are offering for best print butter, from 20 to 25c, and for tubs, from 18c to 22c. For eggs they are paying 15c.

The prices quoted by Garlepy & Leonard are for print butter 20 to 25c, for tubs, 18-20c; and for eggs, 20 cents.

C.N.R., unless unusual inducements could be offered such as would bring out private subscriptions for entire issues. London being closed, New York is the only place, and as the railroad financing in the American money market is in the hands of two groups, usually described as the Hill crowd and the Harriman crowd, and as the latter is making no effort to get into this country or become in any way interested in railroads in the north, the C.N.R. people are thrown up against the Hill financiers in spite of themselves. A traffic arrangement by which the C.N.R. turned over its transcontinental freight at Edmonton to the V.W. & Y. would be a most natural outcome.

—First Presbyterian Young People's society hold an Irish social on Thursday evening. Silver collection will be taken.

—Choir recital in Queen's avenue Presbyterian church on Friday evening, for which the best talent of the city has been engaged.

—Saturday, the 17th is St. Patrick's Day. The United Irishmen of Edmonton, will celebrate with a dinner in Robertson's hall, at which Irving's orchestra will be present.

—Prof. Alexander closes his series of lectures in Robertson's hall this evening, when he will tell how to judge character of the hand-shake, or by the eyes, nose, mouth and chin.

—The ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church, gave a reception last evening to the pastor, Rev. Dr. McQueen, who returned last week from his holiday trip to the Coast. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the members of the congregation who were present.

—A social of interest to Irish residents of Edmonton will be held in basement of First Presbyterian church Thursday next at 8 p.m. An Irish programme has been prepared. Refreshments will be served. A collection will be taken at the door.

—Chas. W. Shaw, contractor, Winnipeg, who has the joint contract with Mayor May for the cement work of the new C.N.R. bridge at the Fort, came in last night, and is registered at the Peninsula. He says that their end of the contract is about finished, and the piers are almost ready for the iron work.

—About thirty of the young men of the city gathered at the Imperial last night to discuss the prospects of summer sports for the coming season, and the chances for securing grounds upon which to play the games. Mr. Sawie, of the Imperial Bank, was appointed secretary for the evening, and Mr. Hardisty was chairman. An executive committee was appointed composed of Messrs. Fred Marshall, of the football club, D. Corbett, of the lacrosse club, Dr. Till of the baseball club, and John Howie, of the cricket club. The secretary was instructed by the meeting to correspond with the secretary of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association and get pointers as to the manner of organizing and conducting such an association. The committee were asked to arrange for another meeting, and the boys will gather again in the near future, and organize into an athletic association. It is the intention to commence a vigorous canvassing campaign amongst the business men of the city, get them interested enough in summer sports to invest a little money in the purchase of a plot of ground to be utilized for games.

—In spite of the fact that Prof. Alexander put a price on his lecture last night for the first time since he has been in the city, and faced all corners an admission fee, yet the crowd filled Robertson's Hall until there was not even standing room, was just as eager and ready to listen to the words of this talented and eloquent speaker as they were curious upon the first evening of his appearance. For two hours the professor held the audience under the spell of his language and of his impressive personality, and gave instruction as well as entertainment from his subject, which had the somewhat sensational title of "Love, Courtship, Marriage and Jealousy." But every lecture had the ring of truth and one could not help but feel the importance of his statements. At the close of the lecture, two ladies and two gentlemen were received on the platform, when the lecturer pointed out in a scientific way wherein the couples would agree or disagree, and whether they were suited to travel life's journey together.

—Miss Edna Sutherland, the talented elocutionist, will appear in the First Baptist church on Monday and Tuesday, March 19 and 20, in aid of the Y.M.C.A. On Monday evening, Miss Sutherland will give readings, from Ralph Connor, J. M. Barrie, and Robert Browning. Tuesday evening she will present the old morality play "Everyman." The Winnipeg Free Press has the following to say regarding her presentation of this masterpiece: "No drama of to-day or of any day could have been presented more powerfully than was this old morality play last evening. Four and a half centuries old, with the must of middle ages on it, "Everyman" seems to be almost as universal as its name would imply, and thrills with life as a story of yesterday. Miss Sutherland's rendering is simply wonderful. The seventeen characters of the drama are presented absolutely distinctly. Each is assumed in turn, the terrified Everyman, the awful enemy Deshe, the worldly minded Cosyn, Goodies leaning upon his staff as the miser clutching his gold, or Dame Fashion as Kyndred. The solemn tones of Adonal, the sweet low whispering of Good-fetes, or the last parting words of Everyman, brought an absolute hush over the audience. As Dr. Patrick pointed out, this great play so impressively presented was most appropriately given in a church.

THE DUMB BELL MUST GO

There will be no more nightmares caused by the city bell. At least that was the purport of the remarks of J. H. Hargreaves at the city council last night, when he told the aldermen that the agent of the company that made the bell arrived in the city last night and that he heard the bell ring only an hour or two before and that as soon as he recovered from the shock he said he would have the bell sent back to the foundry by fast freight and melted up at once, dulcet tones and all. The bell will be taken down in the immediate future and shipped and the little old dinky bell that was good enough for Edmonton before she became a city of national importance and terminal aspirations, will be erected on the cement pedestal that towers above the city of fices. No more Chicago bells for ours.
